

uppe·nti            uhram apma<sup>ʔ</sup>n,            kuna            apxanti·te

u·m            uppe·nti            uhram ahup,            ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

The Indian says the top of the pipe, but the Whiteman says the mouth of the pipe. The Indians always say: "A pipe has a stone bowl on top." The other end, where it is small, the Indian calls the pipe mouth, but the Whiteman calls it the pipe stem.